

AWARD-WINNING
CONTENT THAT MEETS THE
NEEDS OF YOUR EMPLOYEES

Skillsoft® Content Solutions

6K+ GLOBAL CUSTOMERS TRUST OUR CONTENT

Building a successful learning program that drives business results requires more than just a few courses on a particular subject area. You need high-quality, up-to-date learning assets from authoritative sources. Content that fits into the workflow and evolves with your business. Content your learners will trust.

The coolest part about Skillsoft is they have videos, they have simulations, they have the Challenge Series, they have books online—we use all of that. Most courses are one hour or so—it's very quick, very fast-paced, very cutting edge.

Simulations, labs and practice exercises

Skillssoft provides a variety of media-rich simulations, case studies, practice exams, tools, labs and exercises that give learners opportunities to apply the new skills they've learned. Engaging scenarios based on common workplace and business challenges use innovative video and animation techniques to dramatize core elements and recommend a specific course of action. Self assessments, leader-led activities and presentations make it easy for learners to share what they've learned with others across your organization.

Portals

Our experts have organized the most effective, relevant and engaging content for popular topics such as leadership, sales, government competencies, professional foundations and IT certifications into targeted learning portals. These portals present concise tracks that give learners crucial knowledge in small doses that easily integrate into the work day.

Live Events

In these interactive forums, some of the world's most sought-after thought leaders present cutting-edge ideas on leadership topics. Skillssoft offers up to seven live events annually, giving your leaders the chance to engage with experts like Marshall Goldsmith, Patrick Lencioni, Daniel Pink, Sheena Iyengar and more.

Live Learning™

Experienced learning professionals with advanced certifications offer live virtual instruction. Our world-class experts develop lively presentations with current content, comprehensive study guides, engaging labs and helpful instructor notes.

Mentoring

Our mentors are available 24x7 via email or chat for more than 40 of the most popular exams and during traditional work hours for an additional 50 exams. Our mentors hold over 1,000 certifications and they're deeply committed to helping others learn from their experience.

Localized content

Skillssoft partners with local experts to ensure that courses, books, videos and other resources aren't just translated into other languages—assets reflect the cultural norms of different regions and learners.

Flexible options that grow with your organization

Skillssoft recognizes that business needs change over time, and that every organization faces unique challenges. Our learning programs drive competitive strengths. Our unique approach to elearning solutions results in faster deployment, immediate practical results, lower learning costs and rapid ROI.
